No. C18-1225 RSM
(CR15-0181 MJP-001)

STIPULATION AND AGREED
ORDER

15 STIPULATION

16 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between the parties hereto that:

- 17
- 18 1. The defendant in this case was charged with and convicted in this Court under
- 19 Cause No.: 2: 15CR00181MJP-001 with two counts of violation of 18 U.S.C. §
- 20 2423(b). The victim alleged in those counts is the Plaintiff in this case.
- 21 2. That case was extensively investigated by Federal authorities leading to the
- 22 indictment of defendant, resulting, it is believed, in substantial investigative reports,
- 23 documentary evidence and witness statements, including the statement of plaintiff
- 24 herein.
- 25 3. The discovery material produced in the federal criminal case is obviously relevant
- 26

1 to this matter, as the complaint herein alleges violation of the same federal criminal
2 statutes.

3 4. Discovery in the criminal case was produced by the government to Mr. Bridges'
4 defense counsel, Page Pate.

5 5. Counsel for Defendant herein contacted Mr. Pate by email seeking a copy of the 6 discovery material on behalf of Mr. Bridges, Defendant in both actions.

7 6. Mr. Pate responded by email, "Thank you for your email. Unfortunately, I can't
8 produce discovery materials produced to me in a criminal case without a court
9 order. The local rules restrict the dissemination of this information to the 10 government and counsel, especially in a case where the discovery involves sexual
11 abuse allegations by minors. I'm happy to comply if you get a court order, but I
12 otherwise can't send you those materials."

13 7. The parties to the above captioned civil action hereby stipulate that the discovery
14 materials produced to Defendant in the above-captioned criminal case are relevant
15 to the above-captioned civil case and are discoverable within the meaning of FRCP
16 26.

17 8. The undersigned counsel for the parties to the above-captioned civil action hereby
18 agree that production to them of the discovery materials provided to defense
19 counsel in the above-captioned criminal case will facilitate preparation of the 20 above-captioned civil case.
